JERRY GOLF CAMP HAAS

Join Jerry Haas, head coach of the Wake Forest Men's Golf Team, and other college golf coaches, at the brand-new 17.8-acre golf practice facility on the beautiful campus of Wake Forest University.

Designed by Arnold Palmer Design Company as a true collegiate golf practice complex, this premier teaching facility includes a 320-yd driving range, 12 target greens, 4 putting and chipping greens, 24 sand bunkers, and 8 covered hitting bays.

State-of-the-art swing analysis cameras and a radar-based ball flight tracking system equip the facility with first-class capabilities for complete analysis and instruction.

At Jerry Haas Golf Camp, we take great pride in giving individual attention to every participant. Campers are divided into instructional groups by age and golf ability. A college coach heads each group and completes a written evaluation for your camper.

Full instruction for campers includes long-drive, short game, bunker shots, putting, course management, playing strategy, rules of golf and golf etiquette. Campers take home a personal swing analysis on DVD and a written evaluation, along with hand-outs to help them continue to work on their game at home. A coaches shoot-out and two-man scramble will be played at local courses, to give campers a variety of tournament experience. On the final day of each session, campers will have the chance to apply their skills in an individual tournament atmosphere.

In addition to Coach Haas, camp counselors include collegiate golf coaches from colleges and universities, including Davidson, Furman, Vanderbilt, U. of Southern Alabama, Memphis, Gardner-Webb, UNC-Charlotte and others. PGA teaching professionals also assist in daily instruction.

Camp tuition for all camps includes all instruction, all golf fees, DVD, evaluation, camp t-shirt, and WF hat.

Day camp, for ages 7-14, is held 8am-12pm daily.

Overnight camp is for ages 11-18. Campers stay in campus dorms and all meals are included. Free transportation is provided to and from camp for campers who fly in to the Piedmont Triad International Airport in Greensboro.

Jerry Haas, a 1985 Wake Forest graduate, 4-time All-American and former PGA pro, has directed the Jerry Haas Golf Camp since 1998 and is actively involved in every aspect of camp, from teaching and counseling to management.

"We all strive to become better at this wonderful game. Our staff will see that you receive excellent feedback and direction to help you become a better golfer and person. I look forward to our time together."
